

BVIMR's EdMantics Cell proudly hosted Avsar 7.0 - a captivating blend of B-plan brilliance and mentorship magic on March 21, 2024!

The event initiated with a symbolic lamp lighting ceremony, symbolizing the illumination of knowledge and new beginnings. Dr. Aditi Malhotra introduced our distinguished chief guests and shed light on the inspiring genesis of Avsar. Dr. Yamini Agrawal addressed the audience on the significance of human endeavors to benefit the well-being of others. She also felicitated the guests.

Mr. Vyom Bhardwaj shared his invaluable insights on the intersection of technology and business, emphasizing the importance of patience, perseverance, and persistence. Mr. Sonal Sehgal, hailed as a marketing luminary, enlightened us with her journey and the essence of impactful leadership in the marketing realm. All participants were honoured with participation certificates, acknowledging their dedication and entrepreneurial spirit.
