The candidates may receive counselling letters which are just reminder letters. The candidates who have not received counselling letters may attend counselling session on their own as per the schedule mentioned on the website.

The candidate must note that appearance at the entrance test and inclusion of name in the merit list do not necessarily mean that he/she will get admission to the course of his/her choice. His/her admission to a particular course will depend upon the availability of vacancy for that particular course at the time of his/her counseling.

Admission status and vacancy positions will be uploaded on college website daily during counseling period. All students and parents are requested to refer college website - www.bvucoepune.edu.in for vacancy status during counselling and report accordingly.

- If any candidate finds it impossible to be physically present for the counselling due to unavoidable circumstances, he/she may authorise any other responsible individual to represent him/her at the counselling. This representative must carry with him/her the letter of authorization in the format given in Annexure IV as well as all the documents listed in Annexure II. If the candidate or his /her representative fails to report for the counselling on the date and the time mentioned in the schedule of counselling, his/her claim for admission to any of the branches or courses will be forfeited. The choice of course or branch made by the candidate/his/her representative will be final and binding and will not be ordinarily altered later
- The selected candidate will be required to pay the entire amount of annual tuition fee and other fees on the day of counselling itself, through Bank Draft drawn on any nationalized bank in favour of the "Registrar, Bharati Vidyapeeth Deemed University" payable at Pune. In case the candidate fails to remit the entire amount of fees, he/she is likely to lose his/her claim for admission. Refund of fees will be governed by the rules of the University prevailing at that time.
