Report on social activity for students of Final Year Engineering (Sem VII) of Department of Computer Science and Engineering

Organized by: COMPUTER SCIENCE & ENGINEERING

Participants: B. Tech (CSE) Sem-7 Students

Date: 28th September, 2024

INTRODUCTION

We have arranged the visit to Sanmati Bal Niketan, located in Manjari, dist. Pune, (Orphanage for Boys) on 28th September, 2024. As part of curriculum to provide students with valuable exposure to social work and help them understand real-world social issues, develop empathy, and explore how they can contribute positively to society. Sanmati Bal Niketan, located in Manjari, dist. Pune, is an organization dedicated to providing essential support and care to underprivileged children. The organization's primary focus is to fulfill the basic needs of children, including food, shelter, clothing, education, rehabilitation and giving them a secure atmosphere for self-development.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE EVENT

Many students from the CSE department actively participated in this social activity. Sanmati Bal Niketan is making a significant impact by providing a safe and nurturing environment for underprivileged children, giving them the chance to grow, learn, and thrive despite their challenging circumstances. A tour to every section of orphanage is arranged for students so students can understand working of orphanage right from mess to student resident area, library, museum, activity hall etc.

Here are few glimpses of social activity -

" God! Teach us to smile.
But let us not forget
we had cried some day!..."
