Report on “Expert Talk on financially aware and empowered India: women’s financial program”

An Expert Talk on Financial Literacy session, focusing on creating an Investors' Awareness Program for Women, was organized by the Department of CSE, CSBS, and Women's Cell of BVDU COE, Pune. The event took place on February 15, 2025, from 11:00 AM to 12:00 PM.

Approximately 35 lady faculty members attended the informative session. The expert talk was conducted by Mr. Sachin Daga, a seasoned professional with over 20 years of experience in investment and wealth management guidance. His illustrious career spans work with various MNCs in France, US, and UK as an investment and financial risk management expert.

The esteemed guest was felicitated by Vice Principal Dr. Sunita Jadhav Madam.

The primary objective of the financial literacy session was to educate women on effective financial management, empowering them to make informed decisions about their financial resources. Key Topics Covered during the session was Financial Planning, Money Management, Money Investment, Asset Allocation, Mutual Funds. The expert guest further emphasized the importance of promoting financial awareness and education among women. To achieve this, regular financial literacy sessions should be conducted to empower women with the knowledge and skills necessary to manage their finances effectively. Additionally, women should be encouraged to apply financial planning and management techniques in their daily lives, enabling them to make informed decisions about their financial resources said expert. The financial literacy session successfully empowered participants with the knowledge, skills, and confidence to take control of their financial lives. The session received positive feedback from participants, who appreciated the informative and interactive presentation.

The session was concluded with interactive questions and answers followed by a vote of thanks.
