Staff Welfare Committee – One Day Trip Report

Date: 20/02/26

The Staff Welfare Committee organized a recreational trip for the teaching and non-teaching staff on 19th February 2026 to Promote unity, relaxation, and team bonding. The trip was arranged to Pomaje Resort, located at Chikuchi Wadi, Majarewadi, District Kolhapur, followed by a visit to Khidrapur Temple.

The staff assembled at the college premises at 8:30 AM and proceeded to the resort. The journey was pleasant and filled with enthusiasm. On arrival, a welcome session was arranged. The day included various recreational activities, team-building games, music, and informal interaction among staff members.

The serene environment of the resort provided a refreshing break from routine academic responsibilities. Lunch was arranged at the venue, and staff members actively participated in all activities, strengthening interpersonal relationships and fostering a spirit of cooperation.

After the recreational activities, the staff visited the historic Khidrapur Temple, known for its beautiful stone carvings and ancient architecture. The visit provided spiritual enrichment and an opportunity to appreciate cultural heritage.

The temple's intricate sculptures and peaceful surroundings created a serene atmosphere, allowing staff members to experience both devotion and admiration for traditional architecture.

Conclusion

The trip organized by the Staff Welfare Committee was successfully conducted and highly appreciated by all participants. It provided relaxation, strengthened relationships, and created memorable experiences for the staff. Such activities contribute positively to the overall work environment and staff well-being.
