- (2) The programmes should have a minimum of 60 intake and at least 50% of the students, i.e., 30 students should appear for the final year examination, which is considered for awarding the gold medal.
- (3) Some of the programmes with less intake approved by the Apex Councils, the intake of similar programmes should be combined to arrive at the prescribed intake of 60. However, in some cases where the prescribed intake of 60 could not be reached due to apex councils' restrictions, those programmes can also be considered for arriving at the topper.
- (4) In some faculty, due to the subjective evaluation, one programme may be continuously getting the gold medal, it may be given on rotation basis amongst all the (UG/PG) programmes offered under the Faculty while excluding the programme for which the Gold Medal was last awarded.
- (4) Faculty of Medical Sciences –One 'Gold Medal' for topper of the UG – MBBS programme and one 'Gold Medal' for the topper amongst the MD/MS programmes.
