International Day Against Drug Abuse and Illicit Trafficking

Established by the United Nations in 1987, this day aims to raise awareness about the severe impact of drug abuse and illicit trafficking on health, society, and security. The 2025 theme, “Break theCycle. #StopOrganizedCrime,” emphasizes the urgent need to address the growing link between drug abuse and organized crime.

On 26 June, marking the International Day Against Drug Abuse and Illicit Trafficking, PSI Pravin Kanchan VishramBhag of Sangli Police Station delivered a strong address themed “Break the Cycle – #StopOrganizedCrime.” He emphasized both community support for individuals battling addiction and decisive action against trafficking syndicates. The station launched outreach initiatives in schools and local communities, including interactive awareness sessions, poster contests, and mobilization of youth volunteers. Coordination with health professionals and educators was highlighted to ensure prevention and rehabilitation efforts. Emphasizing collective strength, PSI VishramBhag called on law enforcement, the public, and government agencies to unite in safeguarding families and breaking the cycle
