

Bharati Vidyapeeth (Deemed To Be University), Pune
Faculty of Dentistry

Master of Dental Surgery (MDS): Program Outcomes (POs)

PO 01	Apply the basic medical and dental sciences to solve simple, complex or unique clinical problems in the said specialty.
PO 02	Demonstrate a systematic clinical approach to diagnose clinical cases of the concerned specialty including uncommon cases.
PO 03	Provide specialty care to diverse population in the concerned specialty of dentistry in a safe, ethical, legal, and socially acceptable manner.
PO 04	Create and execute treatment strategies to address the unique needs of vulnerable and special care patients (with medical, physical, cognitive, emotional or developmental challenges) in the concerned specialty (as a part of a team).
PO 05	Communicate effectively with patients, caregivers, healthcare professionals and support personnel as required for complex clinical cases as well as interdisciplinary related to the specialty.
PO 06	Integrate biomedical knowledge, best quality research, clinical expertise and values to provide evidence-based oral healthcare comprising of modern treatments and ICT-enabled approaches.
PO 07	Lead oral healthcare teams, collaborate with other healthcare providers and actively participate in professional and community organizations for development of the specialty.
PO 08	Advocate the specialty for promotion and improvement of community health.
PO 9	Possess a lifelong commitment to learning and professional development.
PO 10	Plan and execute research in the concerned specialty that aims to fulfill dental needs of the community.
PO11	Demonstrate educational strategies, techniques and principles in teaching the specialty to students/ juniors at various stages of learning.

Dean.

Faculty of Dentistry
Bharati Vidyapeeth
(Deemed to be university)
Pune