Brief about the program/ activity/event:

On 30th November 2022, Bharati Vidyapeeth (Deemed to be University), Pune (India), arranged a webinar under UGC for Bharat Loktantra Ki Janani (India: The Mother of Democracy) titled "Tribal Traditions and Governance: The Way of Democracy" from 3:30pm-4:30pm. The guest lecture was graced by honoured and respected Prof. Dr. T. V. Kattimani (Vice Chancellor, Central Tribal University of Andhra Pradesh) who joined the audience through digital platform. Dr. Kattimani initiated the webinar and guided the audience in different dimensions to education for the Tribal community and led a broader vision to the Tribal Society. Special reference was given to Chota Nagpur plateau, where a tribal community inhabited. The uprising of the same for access to various facilities and upliftment of the Tribals was detailed by the Speaker which gave a direction in understanding the Tribal Community. The efforts made for upbringing the Tribal Women and their role in decision-making was explained. The system of Tribal Panchayat and their role in maintaining the Water Resources, Pilgrim, and Public Property was also put forth in understanding the functioning of the Tribal community. Tribal Society, an autonomous body serves Democratic traits with equal opportunities for all highlighted the way towards development of the Tribals. The measures taken by the Government, keeping in mind the age-old customs of Tribals, for the upliftment of the Tribal people were explained so as to create awareness amongst the audience in view of Tribal education. The formation of Governance for the Tribal community was detailed in the lecture and this guidance by Sir gave a new and broader vision to Tribal Community. The program was smoothly conducted under the guidance of Prof. Dr. Vivek Saoji (Vice Chancellor, Bharati Vidyapeeth Deemed to be University, Pune) and Shri. G. Jaykumar (Registrar, Bharati Vidyapeeth Deemed to be University, Pune). The event was conducted in the institute for students and the staff of Physiotherapy with support from Dr. Sneha V. Katke (Principal, BVDU School of Physiotherapy, Sangli).
