Activity performed at Dental College and Hospital, Navi Mumbai

On the 21st of February, the NSS Committee of Bharti Vidyapeeth Dental College and hospital, Navi Mumbai proudly organized a grand celebration to honor the birth anniversary of the great Maratha warrior, Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj. The event was a tribute to his valor, leadership, and contribution to the nation.

The event commenced with our Dean Dr V. Sreenivasan Sir's visit to the Killa (fort model), Rangoli, and Notice Board, each crafted with devotion to honor the indomitable spirit of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj, who once said, "Of all the rights of women, the greatest is to be a mother of a brave son."

This was followed by an electrifying Lezim performance and a spirited dance, embodying the warrior's energy and the vibrant culture of Maharashtra.

The atmosphere then roared with powerful 'Shivgarjana', a battle cry reminiscent of Shivaji Maharaj's call to arms: "Jinke paas satya hai, wahi shashwat hai" (He who stands by truth alone is eternal). This moment was marked by the grand banner release, symbolizing the undying legacy of Swarajya.

Followed by a speech, echoing Shivaji Maharaj's wisdom: "Never bend your head, always hold it high. The world will look up to you." His words ignited a fire of patriotism in every heart present.

The saga of valor continued with an exhilarating dance performance by our volunteers, followed by a riveting skit portraying the grand 'Rajyabhishek' (coronation) of Shivaji Maharaj, a moment that cemented his reign as the torchbearer of Hindavi Swarajya.

The grand finale was the soul-stirring 'Powada' a traditional Marathi ballad narrating the fearless exploits of Shivaji Maharaj, reminding all of his legendary words: "Lions don't perform in circuses, and warriors never beg for their rights."

This event was not just a celebration; it was a resounding tribute to the lionhearted king whose legacy continues to inspire generations.
