Date: 30th September 2025

Time: 8:45 AM

Venue: Auditorium Hall, Nursing College, Sangli

Resource Person: Respected Principal Dr. Suresh Kumar Ray

Introduction

Punctuality is a vital attribute in the nursing profession, reflecting responsibility, discipline, and commitment to patient care. Nurses are the backbone of healthcare, and timeliness plays a critical role in ensuring continuity of care, effective teamwork, and patient safety.

Objectives

- To emphasize the importance of punctuality in the professional life of nurses.
- To develop a sense of discipline and accountability among nursing students.
- To motivate students to maintain time management in both academic and clinical settings.

Summary of the Session

The session was conducted by Dr. Suresh Kumar Ray, who addressed all nursing students on the importance of discipline and punctuality in shaping professional identity. He highlighted how punctuality contributes to efficiency, teamwork, and respect within the healthcare environment. Students were encouraged to cultivate habits of timely attendance in classes, clinical postings, and examinations. The talk also included practical examples from clinical practice demonstrating how delays in nursing care can affect patient outcomes. The session concluded with an interactive discussion where students shared their views on improving punctuality and time management.

Outcome

- Students understood the professional significance of punctuality.
- They committed to maintaining discipline in academic and clinical areas.
- Enhanced awareness regarding the correlation between punctuality and patient safety.

Conclusion

The professional talk successfully instilled the value of punctuality as an essential component of nursing professionalism. Regular sessions on such topics help nurture responsible and dedicated future nurses.
