

Guest Lecture on Indian Knowledge System and Indian Ethics

A guest lecture on “Indian Knowledge System and Indian Ethics: Perspective through Swami Vivekananda’s Philosophy” was conducted on Tuesday, 6th January 2026 at the institute. The session was delivered by Prof. Dr. Anand S. Mehendale, an accomplished academician and researcher with multidisciplinary qualifications in Mathematics, History, HR, and a Ph.D. in Human Resource Development, with a focus on skill development and Indian ethics.

The lecture offered profound insights into Indian ethical traditions, values, and their contemporary relevance, drawing inspiration from the teachings and philosophy of Swami Vivekananda. The session encouraged students and faculty to reflect on character-building, national consciousness, and ethical living rooted in India’s knowledge heritage.

On this occasion, Prof. Dr. Mehendale was felicitated at the hands of Dr. Pallavi Jamsandekar, Director of the institute, in recognition of his valuable and thought-provoking lecture.

The event was effectively coordinated by Prof. Akhilesh Jadhav and Dr. Jagdish Patil, whose efforts ensured the smooth and successful conduct of the programme.

Adding further value to the event, a book stall was set up by Ramakrishna Vivekananda Adhyatmik Seva Sanstha, Sangli, showcasing a rich collection of books on Swami Vivekananda, Indian philosophy, spirituality, and ethical thought. The book exhibition attracted enthusiastic participation from students and faculty members, fostering deeper engagement with Indian spiritual and philosophical literature.
