World Cancer Day: Theme-2025: United by Unique

On the occasion of World Cancer Day, a awareness program was organized for the community people with the aim of spreading awareness about cancer, its prevention, early detection, and the importance of a healthy lifestyle. The event served as a platform to educate and community people to take an active role in fighting against cancer.

The awareness program was organized by department of Medical Surgical Nursing, Bharati Vidyapeeth (DU) College of Nursing, Pune. This awareness program featured insightful posters prepared regarding awareness about cancer, its prevention, early detection, and importance of a healthy lifestyle, when to meet doctor and about various diagnostic procedures. Under the theme: United by Unique. Posters prepared and explained by 2nd Sem and 4th Sem students under the guidance of Mrs. A. Shaily Bikai- Assistant Professor (BVDUCON) Pune & Mr. Dipak Khemnar.

We are grateful to Dr. Veena Sakhardande- Associate Professor & HOD, Medical Surgical Nursing, Bharati Vidyapeeth (DU) College of Nursing, Pune & Dr. Rupali Salvi Professor & HOD, Community Health Nursing, Bharati Vidyapeeth (DU) College of Nursing, Pune, for all the support. The latest developments in cancer research, treatment modalities, and patient care strategies were shared. Students had the opportunity to engage in interactive discussions, answer general questions, and broaden the understanding of the people regarding disease from both a clinical and humanistic perspective.

By organizing this event, the institution reaffirmed its commitment to health education and community engagement. It was not only a day of learning but also a call to action for all attendees to become advocates for cancer awareness in their personal and professional circles.
