VISION OF BV DU COLLEGE OF ARCHITECTURE, PUNE

"Committed To Inculcating Sensitivity Towards Sustainable Built Environment Through Architectural Education"

MISSION OF BV DU COLLEGE OF ARCHITECTURE, PUNE

The institution shall strive:

- To instill knowledge, skills, values, and ethics to produce socially responsible, environmentally conscious, and economically aware architectural professionals.
- To encourage innovation and research for a sustainable built environment.

Dear Readers,

It gives me great pleasure to present the 6th edition of Patrika, our biannual newsletter that reflects the vibrant academic, creative, and co-curricular life of Bharati Vidyapeeth College of Architecture, Pune. Patrika has steadily evolved into a meaningful platform that documents our collective journey capturing student achievements, faculty initiatives, academic explorations, outreach activities, and institutional milestones. Each edition stands as a testimony to the enthusiasm, resilience, and commitment of our academic community towards excellence in architectural education. The past months have been particularly enriching, marked by innovative studio works, research engagements, collaborations, competitions, workshops, and socially responsive initiatives. I am proud of our students who continue to demonstrate curiosity, creativity, and social sensitivity, and of our faculty who relentlessly mentor, inspire, and lead by example. I appreciate the sincere efforts of the editorial team and all contributors who have worked diligently to curate this edition. Their dedication ensures that Patrika not only informs but also inspires and connects us as a community. I hope this edition encourages reflection, dialogue, and renewed motivation among our readers. Let us continue to learn, innovate, and contribute responsibly to the built environment and society at large.

Warm regards,

Dr. Kavita Murugkar

A group of approximately 30 people, including students and teachers, are posed for a group photo in front of a large, ornate stone temple. The temple features intricate carvings and a central entrance with a red flag hanging above it. The group is arranged in several rows, with some individuals standing in the back and others sitting or kneeling in the front. The students are wearing blue uniforms, while the teachers are in casual attire. A poster is visible on the left side of the image.

A group of nine people, including students and a teacher, are posing for a photo in front of a large, ornate bell. The bell is suspended from a wooden frame and has a small plaque that reads "Sri Sri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu". The group consists of seven students and two adults. One student is holding a certificate that says "eKadanta". The background shows a traditional Indian building with a red roof and yellow walls, and a large tree. The scene is set outdoors during the day.

SITE VISITS: MASTER OF ARCHITECTURE (SA)

Site visit to Vanpuri Village , Purandar Taluka
The aim of the site visit was working on the Assignment: “ Development of Solutions of Sanitation Plan, Public Toilets, Composting Plant and other built projects ” for the selected rural area of Vanpuri Village.

The aim of the site visit was to study and analyze the spatial, architectural, and functional characteristics of single-screen cinema theatres as part of their Redevelopment Project.

The aim of the site visit to City Pride, Satara Road was to observe, study, and analyze the design, planning, and operational aspects of a large-scale commercial/entertainment complex.

SITE VISITS: BACHELOR OF ARCHITECTURE

S.Y.B.Arch. students visited Wai to study the architectural and socio-cultural essence of vernacular buildings like Phanavis Wada and Shevdi Wada.

The visit to Wadki village Aanganwadi helped students explore community-responsive design through space, materials, and user interaction.

The visit helped students link design theory to real spaces at IUCAA through observation and analysis.

The site visit for 4th-year students exposed them to real-world interior design projects in commercial (F&B) and residential (3BHK) contexts, highlighting on-site design and execution processes.

The visit to Divyang Bhavan Foundation exposed students to disabilities, assistive devices, therapies, and inclusive design planning.

3rd-year students visited National Institute of Naturopathy (NIN, Pune, to study the design and spatial organization of wellness spaces.

2nd-year students visited Ranawat Residence and Antara to study residential design and spatial planning.

The event provided participants with a unique opportunity to engage with renowned architect Ar. Manish Banker

4th-year students visited Shri Chhatrapati Shahu Maharaj Housing Colony, Pune, to study affordable housing for EWS and LIG.

SITE VISITS: BSc.(Sustainable Interior Design) & Diploma in Architecture

A foundation site visit was organized to give students practical exposure to excavation, footings, reinforcement, and concreting in building construction.

A café site visit for students to understand spatial planning, circulation, and design elements through real-world observation.

A residential site visit for students study planning, scale, materials, and construction details through on-site observation.

A material site visit to a marble unit to understand stone types, processing methods, finishes, and their application in architectural design.

An RCX Café site visit for B.Sc. Sustainable Interior students to study interior planning, material choices, and sustainable design practices in a live setting.

Expert Lecture On Landscape-based Urbanism
A design approach for sustainable urban landscapes
Prof. Dr. Steffen Nijhuis
Head of the Section Landscape Architecture, TU Delft, Netherlands

Prof. Dr. Steffen Nijhuis is a Full Professor of Landscape-based Urbanism and Head of the Section Landscape Architecture at Delft University of Technology at the Faculty of Architecture and the Built Environment, The Netherlands. His work centres on sustainable urban development, design with nature processes, and digital landscape architecture. He has led numerous projects globally and serves on boards including the Chicago Institute and the Dutch Urbanism Department. Nijhuis is a Fellow in the Chair of Research in Urbanism Series and Springer's Urban Studies series. He supervises MSc and PhD research and lectures internationally.

Session Abstract:
Urbanisation is a major challenge of this century, often damaging fragile ecosystems that provide food, water, and protection from climate risks. To counter this, we need a landscape-based approach to urbanism—one that places the biosphere at the heart of social and economic development. Landscape-based urbanism uses the logic of natural and cultural systems as the foundation for sustainable urban design across scales. At its core: designing with nature, people, and history.

All Students of B.Arch. Program & M.Arch. Program

LOOT B is an innovative learning initiative that encourages creative, hands-on, and experiential learning beyond the classroom, promoting learning through exploration and practice.

As part of the Learning Out of the Box initiative, students visited Pimpri Chinchwad Divyang Bhavan to gain insights into inclusive design, universal accessibility, and empathy-driven architecture.

Students visited Bal Gandharva Rang Mandir to gain brief insights into HVAC systems and acoustic design in a professional theatre.

The visit to the Godrej RMC plant gave students practical exposure to ready-mix concrete production, quality control, and testing under expert guidance.

Students attended IGBC Pune Green Sabha 2025, gaining quick insights into sustainable materials, green building practices, and industry perspectives.

LOOTB: DAY 1

The RIVER-CONNECT activity engaged students in a Mutha River visit at Vitthalwadi, exploring its ecology, history, and urban riverbank issues through interactions, sketches, and a cleanliness drive.

Students visited The Box Hub to understand adaptive reuse and flexible space design, with insights into services, acoustics, and colour planning.

Students visited St. Paul's Church, Pune, to study English Revival Gothic architecture.

Students visited Pu La Deshpande Garden to study Japanese landscape elements and Kalagram to explore cultural space integration.

The visit to Darshan Museum provided an immersive insight into the life and teachings of Sadhu Vaswani.

LOOTB: DAY 2

Students visited India House by CCBA Designs to observe the integration of light, form, and nature.

Students visited Amar Park 81, Mundhwa to study its IGBC Platinum-rated design and sustainable features.

LOOTB: DAY 2

Students visited Pu La Deshpande Garden, Pune, to study Japanese landscape design principles, focusing on spatial harmony, balance, and integration of natural elements.

Students visited Balkalyan Organization to understand its work for physically impaired children and explore the Sensory Garden's design elements.

Students visited SAR Residence to study design principles, proportions, structure, and material integration with the surroundings.

BSc SID students visited RCX Cafe, Balewadi, Pune, to study interior design, focusing on materials, lighting, and space planning and their role in shaping ambiance and user experience.

Students visited the Auditorium and Open-Air Theatre at the Bhandarkar Oriental Research Institute to study acoustics, lighting, HVAC, and sound systems. The visit offered practical exposure to service integration and design considerations essential for effective auditorium spaces.
