

Faculty Description

Name: Mukta Latkar-Talwalkar

Qualification:

- Bachelors In Architecture.
- Masters In Civil Engineering. (Town And Country Planning)
- Post Graduate Diploma In Indology.
- Post Graduate Diploma In Environmental Education.
- Masters Of Arts. (Indology)

Designation: Professor

Department: BVDU College Of Architecture, Pune 43

Involvement: As Core faculty

Areas of expertise: Architectural Design, History, Urban Planning, Environmental Education

Teaching profile (subjects): Architectural Design, History, Urban Planning

Email: Mukta.Latkar@bharativedyapeeth.edu

Brief Biography:

An Architect and Planner with a keen interest in Indology and Environment, she is a Rank holder of Mumbai University, Pune University and Tilak Maharashtra Vidyapeeth and also a Gold Medalist from Mumbai University and Bharati Vidyapeeth University.

She has successfully designed and conducted Faculty Development Programs for Professionals sponsored by COA, NewDelhi and NIDM and been the Convenor for the National Digital Conference 2020.

She has attended various national and international conferences and presented papers there. She has published papers in National And International Refereed Journals.

Key Competencies: Student Centric Teaching and Administrative Skills.

Professional profile:

Have worked with 'Praasad' Architects on many of their Urban Planning and Redevelopment Projects in Pune and Mumbai.

Academic Profile: 25 years of Core teaching experience

Hobbies: Arts and Crafts