Bharati Vidyapeeth School of Physiotherapy celebrated Breast feeding week in collaboration with Bharati Hospital and Research Centre Gynecology department on Friday, 4th August 2023.

There was a awareness program arranged for pregnant females from gynaecology department by Dr. Chaya Deshmukh and Dr. Ketaki Kulkarni.

15 pregnant females attended the group activity and a series of lectures was conducted by:

Dr. Chaya Deshmukh:

1. What is Breast Feeding and Advantages of Breast feeding for mother and baby.
2. National and International recommended infants and young child feeding practices.

Dr Ketaki Kulkarni (PT):

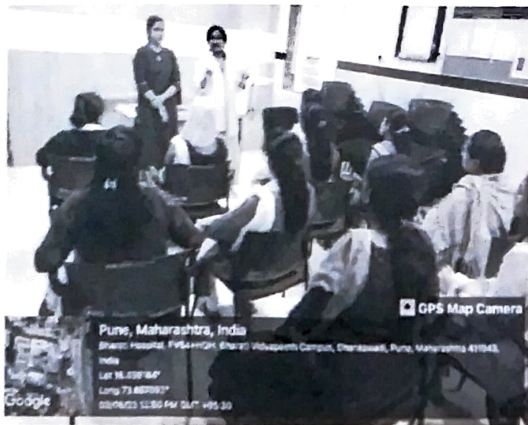

1. Different Positions of Breastfeeding.
2. Ergonomics to be followed while breast feeding.

This session was quite interactive, expectant mothers were expressing their interest by asking their doubts and queries.

Over all this activity was a great success with new experiences.
