

Faculty description – Shardul Lahoti

Name: Ar. Shardul Lahoti

Qualification: B. Arch, M. Arch. Architecture, Chandigarh College of Architecture .

Designation: Assistant Professor

Department: B.Arch.

Involvement: Core Faculty

Areas of expertise: Architecture Design, Architecture Photography, Urban Design, Sustainable development

Teaching profile (subjects): Architectural Design II, Computer in Architecture, Climatology,

Email: mvd@bvcoa.in Brief Biography: Shardul is a postgraduate student Chandigarh College of Architecture who's practiced Architecture and Photography for two years after graduation. He has been involved in projects which have won both National and International awards and hence worked behind the scenes in documenting these projects as well. Having won a few photography awards nationally which include the prestigious Arch Digest India and Chandigarh Tourism Department he believes by his thought "Spaces are empty, Places have meaning. Architecture is about creating spaces and Designing them to be places." He has also worked under the nationally acclaimed photographer Amit Pasricha while documenting heritage sites of his hometown that is Pune while working with his organisation known as India Lost and Found.

Key Competencies: Teaching, Communication and skills, Photography

Professional profile: Worked with VDGA an internationally acclaimed firm, along with

Executed various residential and commercial interior projects in Pune.

Trained in Hindustani classical music - vocal and violin.

Academic Profile: 2 years professional experience and 1 month core teaching experience

Hobbies: Trekking, Backpacking, Sports, Photography.