Bharati Vidyapeeth

Bharati Vidyapeeth, the parent body of Bharati Vidyapeeth University was established on 10th May 1964 by Dr. Patangrao Kadam with the objective of bringing about intellectual awakening and all round development of the people of our country through education.

The sole objective of the establishment was a yearning to usher in an era of intellectual awakening and complete development of the country through the medium of education.

Despite a relatively short time span of 47 years. Bharati Vidyapeeth is counted among the top most educational institutions in the country. Over the years, it has developed 160 educational institutions that impart education from pre-primary to Ph.D. The diversity is also reflected in the courses offered that range across vast and diverse disciplines like Medicine, Dentistry, Ayurved, Homoeopathy, Nursing, Arts, Science, Commerce, Engineering, Pharmacy, Management, Social Sciences, Law, Environmental Science. Architecture, Hotel Management & Catering Technology, Physical Education, Computer Science, Library Science, Information Technology, Biotechnology and Agriculture.

All these institutions have earned critical acclaim for their excellence in every field they have branched into. They cater to the educational needs of thousands of students from across the nation and the globe. They are aided in their educational journeys by a highly competent, qualified, experienced and empathic faculty. These educational institutions are located at various places viz. Pune, Navi Mumbai, Kolhapur, Solapur, Sangli, Karad, Panchagani, Jawhar and New Delhi. The credit for the spectacular success of Bharati Vidyapeeth is owed largely to the exceptionally visionary insight and vibrant guidance of our Chancellor and founder Dr. Patangrao Kadam.

Bharati Vidyapeeth (Deemed) University

26th April, 1996 was a moment of crowning glory for Bharati Vidyapeeth as well as, for Dr. Patangrao Kadam. The day on which, the government of India on the recommendation of the University Grants Commission granted the status of University to a group of 12 institutions of Bharati Vidyapeeth, located in Pune, in appreciation of their academic excellence and potential for further growth vide its notification No. E-9-15/95-U.3 dated 26/4/96 under the section 3 of the University Grant Commission Act of 1956.

Bharati Vidyapeeth University has got 'A' grade status by Ministry of Human Resource and Development (MHRD), Government of India. Addedly it has also been reaccredited to grade 'A' by National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC).

Thus, Bharati Vidyapeeth University is now an amalgam of 29 constituent units. Such a large number of constituent units transform it into, arguably, the largest multi-disciplinary multi-campus University in the country established under section 3 of UGC act 1956.

The degrees and Diplomas offered by Bharati Vidyapeeth are on par in status and validity with the ones conferred by any statutory university. This is in keeping with its 'University Status' to the Cluster of Institutions within the ambit of Bharati Vidyapeeth ratified by the Govt. of India on the recommendation of UGC and AICTE. Moreover, its professional education college such as Engineering College, Medical College, Dental College and others enjoy the ratification of the respective statutory council like AICTE, Medical Council of India etc. besides they have been accorded due recognition by the State and Central Government.

BVU College of Engineering

'Scientists dream about doing great things. Engineers do them'. The modern world of hi-tech gadgetry attests this quote. Engineering, along with the versatile and multiple capabilities it entails, occupies an integral role in the development of a nation and sustenance of this development. Hence production of Engineers is an innovative and significant addition to the human resource that contributes directly to the progress of the nation.

Bharati Vidyapeeth University College of Engineering (BVUCOE), located at Pune, enjoys the privilege of being included among the premier institutions involved in the process of creating valuable & trained human resources, since its establishment on 9th August 1983 it has been marked by its consistent value creation of excellent engineers during these years. It ranks among the oldest and largest Engineering Colleges in the state of Maharashtra. Affiliated earlier to University of Pune, It was recognized as a constituent Unit of BVU on 28 July 2000 by the Government of India on the recommendation of U.G.C. New Delhi circulated vide its notification No.E-9-15/95.U.3.

BVUCOE enjoys unprecedented success and popularity owing to its fundamental and unshakeable focus on academic excellence and research. It is known for its visionary leadership, exceptional resources and state-of-art infrastructure that offers special support for students as they seek to build their careers.

Accredited to Grade 'A' by NAAC (2011 & 2004) and also Accredited by NBA (2011 & 2005) and selected by MHRD Govt. of India for Grant under TEQIP - II of Rs. 4 Cr.

The college features among the top choices of students and parents, while it enjoys the confidence of the industry too. The college caters nearly 3,000 students enrolled in the college. The annual intake capacity of the college is 700 for UG courses and 136 seats for PG courses.

International Conference - 'NanoTechnology - Innovative Materials, Processes, Products, and Applications'

It is an endeavor of Bharati Vidyapeeth University, Pune, India, to bring together and provide a platform to the experts from Academia, Industry and R & D institutes from India and abroad to interact, deliberate, disseminate and exchange ideas, share knowledge, and develop a common vision for the future developments in the field of Nanotechnology.

NANOCON-012, a two day International Conference on "Nano Technology-Innovative Materials, Processes, Products, and Applications" is being organised by Bharati Vidyapeeth University (BVU) in association with North Carolina A&T State University, Greensboro, USA (NCA&T), Tuskegee University, Alabama, USA (TU) and Centre for Materials for Electronics Technology (C-MET), Department of Information Technology, Government of India. The conference is being organised in the sprawling, picturesque, serene and beautiful Bharati Vidyapeeth University campus at Pune-Satara road.

The grand Inaugural Ceremony took place in the CV Raman Hall. It was graced by eminent dignitaries from India and abroad. It had Dr. Ravi Grover, Member, Atomic Energy Commission, Principal Adviser, Department of Atomic Energy, Government of India and Director, HBNI as the chief guest and Dr. Barry Burks, Vice Chancellor, Research and Economic Development, NCAT, USA as Guest of Honor. The Chief Patron for the conference, Dr. Patangrao Kadam, Hon Chancellor, Bharati Vidyapeeth Deemed University and Dr. Shinichi Kikkawa, Vice President, The Ceramic Society of Japan and Vice Dean, Hokkaido University, Japan chaired the inaugural function. The function had the presence of patrons of the conference Dr. Shivajirao Kadam, Hon' Vice Chancellor, Bharati Vidyapeeth Deemed University and Dr. Vishwajeet Kadam, Hon Secretary, Bharati Vidyapeeth. It also had the dignified presence of Prof. Jitendra Yakhmi, Director, BARC, Dr. Ajit Kelkar, Chairman, Joint School of Nano Sciences and Nano Technology, NCA&T, USA, Dr Reshef Tenne, Director, Helen and Martin Kimmel Center for Nanoscale Science, Member, Israel Academy of Science, Israel and Dr. Dinesh Amalnerkar, Executive Director, Centre for Materials for Electronics Technology, Pune.

The proceedings of the conference was set in motion with the welcome address by Dr. Anand Bhalerao, Chairman, NANOCON-012, who welcomed the dignitaries and the audience to the conference and emphasized the significance and relevance of the conference with a prelude to NANOCON-010. He mentioned that conference is supported financially by North Carolina, Tuskegee University USA, Department of Science and Technology, Ministry of Science and Technology, Government of India. He also highlighted the prominent feature of the conference and also emphasized the importance of the association with NCA&T University in term of M.Tech (Nanotechnology) course. He expressed gratitude to all the national and international dignitaries for their kind support and cooperation in the making of NANOCON-012.

A total of 250 research papers were received. To maintain optimum quality, with great efforts, only 140 papers for oral presentations and 25 papers for poster presentation were selected. The conference has to its credit few prominent and important features. The research papers being presented in the conference will be published in reputed peer reviewed Journals such as Journal and IEEE Transactions of Nanotechnology, International Journal of Nano Research, USA and Nanotechnology & Nano sciences International Journal having an impact factor of ICV:4.54.

The DATAQUEST -CMR Top T-School survey

The DATAQUEST - CMR Top T-School survey is conducted every year to decide the rankings of technical colleges in India. The result of the survey conducted for this year is published in the issue of DATAQUEST (dated 15 Dec. 2012). This is the 7th year of such survey.

BVDUCOE has been ranked among the Top 20 technical schools on the all India basis. Further, it is ranked among Top 5 technical colleges of West Zone, and also features among top 5 in India for HR perception (Excluding IITs). This is the 7th consecutive year that BVDUCOE has ranked among top 50 Technical Schools of India

This ranking is based on criterions such as placement, infrastructure, industry interface, academic environment and HR perception.

The college has bounced from 35th rank in the last year to 19th ranking this year.

Bharatiyam 2012

To bring forth the best innovations of the finest minds in the country, in the most conducive milieu, the college organises its annual national level technical event BHARATIYAM, since the last 25 years. It consists of various technical and cultural events. It is a confluence of numerous talents and aims to give budding engineers a glimpse of professional excellence. It provides a unique and common platform for the intellectual development of students by promoting the habit of inquiry, learning, thinking and creativity, thus encouraging students to portray their talent in competition with their peers from all parts of the nation through a series of thought provoking contests.
