Also upcoming collaborative workshop on Flavours of North East –Assam , proposed Hexa Webinar on National Training Day and expressed satisfaction on the same considering the uncertainty due to the pandemic, absence of students on campus.

She briefed all present on the revised AQAR format and online submission Data Template for AQAR was also shared and all were advised to carefully read the SOP and general guidelines shared by email to understand document requirement stressing the need for carefully verifying proof of documentation before entering data in the report. Requested all to work on the AQAR to ensure timely submission to the University.

Mr.Rupesh Londhe welcomed suggestions for improving admissions for 2021-22. A suggestion of online hospitality competition in June after Class XII examinations to attract students was very well accepted by all. Mr.Sagar Mohite was assigned the responsibility of organizing the event.

A POA for next year was discussed and finalized with approval of all – with research, consultancy and training, infrastructure development to be prioritized.

Ms.Shatakshi Shirolkar shared the link for Student Satisfaction Survey to be shared with all students and encourage them to submit response.

Dr.Sagar Mohite pointed out that several research papers published by faculty do not come under UGC care list and hence all need to be aware of this aspect when publishing papers.

With no other point raised the meeting concluded.
